

AMERICAN EMBASSY

CONSULAR SECTION

QUITO, ECUADOR

July, 2007

The Quito Consular District comprises the provinces of Pichincha, Esmeraldas, Tungurahua, Cotopaxi, Chimborazo, Imbabura, Carchi, Bolivar, Napo, Orellana, Pastaza, Sucumbios and Morona-Santiago. Consular jurisdiction for the remainder of Ecuador, including the Galapagos Islands, is vested in the American Consulate General, Guayaquil.

All of the following lawyers, except where noted, are members of the Quito Bar Association (additional memberships are indicated) and are Ecuadorian citizens authorized to practice before Ecuadorian courts. They all speak Spanish and English unless otherwise noted. Any additional language ability is indicated. They do not handle criminal cases and are not public notaries except where indicated.

Please note that the rules of the Quito Bar Association (Colegio de Abogados) prohibit all advertising on the part of its members. As the publication of the names of members of the Bar together with any data concerning their professional experience and qualifications may be considered as a contravention of this rule against advertising, this list is released on the condition that it is not to be published.

The American Embassy in Quito assumes no responsibility for the professional ability or integrity of the persons or firms whose names appear in the list given below. They are, however, selected with care. The names are listed alphabetically, and the order in which they appear has no other significance.
